CO-OPERATIVE HOUSING (CO-OP)

This type of housing is not just for older adults and varies in cost. There may be some subsidies available in Co-ops, however they are jointly owned and thus you must pay a refundable share purchase when entering Co-op housing. You must also contribute a certain amount of time to the running of the co-op.

Co-op Housing Federation of BC
220 - 1651 Commercial Dr., Vancouver, BC
(604) 879-5111 www.chf.bc.ca

For more information on Co-ops and listings of Co-ops currently taking applications contact Co-op Housing Federation of BC.

Disability Assistance & Trust
(604) 879-5111 ext. 140
The Community Housing Land Trust Foundation

As part of joining a housing co-op, a prospective member must buy a share in the Co-op. The Disability Trust helps people with disabilities who are unable to pay for their shares. Recognizing that even a small extra monthly cost can be a hardship for those on a fixed income, the Disability Trust helps by providing a loan with no fee or interest.

Domestic Violence Relief Fund
(604) 879-5111 ext. 103

The Community Housing Land Trust Foundation

The Domestic Violence Relief Fund (DVRF) assists women who have experienced or are at risk of abuse, threats, or violence, who cannot afford to pay for their shares when they move into a housing co-op. The DVRF helps by proving loans with no fee or interest to qualified beneficiaries.
